EDWARD MAY FROM COAST

The bark Edward May arrived yesterday afternoon from the Coast after a good passage of 14 days. The voyage was uneventful, fair weather being enjoyed all the way from the Coast.

The bark brings a general cargo, valued at $51,678, part of which is for Elea and Makaweli. It consists of canned goods, feedstuffs, baled hay, distillate, coal oil, fertilizer, powder, railroad ties and hardware. After discharging here, the vessel will go to Elea and Makaweli, proceeding from there to Mahukona, where she will load sugar for the Coast.

The army tug Slocum, which sails today from San Francisco for Honolulu to take the Sheridan back to the Coast, has recently undergone a general overhauling. She has had two new plates put in her bottom, a new stern post has been placed in position and she has a new high-pressure cylinder and new glands.

The tug has a bunker capacity of 250 tons of coal, though it is expected that she will use only about 110 tons in making the voyage to Honolulu. She carries a complement of 24 men.

BUSINESS MEN

per cent. taxation; the school question, the new leprosy law, the matter of approval of the Governor's appointments, etc.

It was the opinion of the speakers that it was also of great importance that the Legislature be composed of such members as would insure a dignified and businesslike session, instead of such a one as might do much harm to the Territory by creating an unfavorable impression at Washington.

Although motions were passed or resolutions adopted, the meeting being more in the manner of a general discussion of a matter of great importance to all those present, it was decidedly the sense of the meeting that the Republican legislative ticket was the one which could best serve the interest of the business community, which should therefore have its support.

James Crowe came in on the Kinau this morning.

John Ruskin

Wandering with Ruskin through sunlit landscapes or amid the splendors of an ancient city are truly the most delightful occupations for an evening.

To the quality of all-seeing he added the rare gift of word painting, till one would willingly prefer reading Ruskin's description of a place to seeing it with one's own eyes.

HAWAII DEMOCRATS

constantly more favorable. It is a close fight, but we are going to win. Kuhio came up on the same steamer on which were McClanahan, his Democratic opponent for Delegate, and Notley, the Home Rule candidate. They seem, however, to have had little to do with one another. Cupid stated that he was asleep when the others came on board and did not see anything of them.

In addition to those mentioned, there was also Stephen Desha, who will do some campaigning in Honolulu before returning to Hawaii.

Desha has been making the tour of the island with Cupid. The meetings everywhere, he says, have been big ones and very enthusiastic. Everything is going our way," he said. "We are getting stronger on Hawaii every day. Kuhio is everywhere enthusiastically received, and it is certain that he is the choice of the voters down there. Even the Democrats are going to vote for him. A prominent Democrat of Hawaii was asked the other day why it was that there was so little enthusiasm for McClanahan. He refused to answer. Another Democrat explained the situation. He said that the Democrats on Hawaii are going to vote for Kuhio 'and not for that haole McClanahan.' Desha says that the campaign of the Democrats on Hawaii is one of abuse and mud flinging. They make all sorts of personal attacks on Kalaniano'ole and the other Republican candidates. But we are not taking any part in that kind of a campaign. We are ready to discuss the issues but we are not indulging in personalities. As to McClanahan, the Democrats have no hope or intention of electing him. It is Kuhio whom they want."

Mr. Desha says that the other Republican candidates are getting along well and that, although the fight is a hot one for some of them they are going to win out.

ONLY A TACIT

tells of the line of argument he had used on his tour, but said that that could be heard tonight, when he would speak at the Democratic rally at Ala Park.

NOTLEY DID NOT RAISE

and cause trouble. At Hana District, in spite of rain, the meeting was very successful. In total he predicted the victory of the Home Rule party both on Hawaii and Maui. While away he said he did not raise any race issue during his campaign, nor has he passed any personal remarks against Mr. McClanahan. He did not tell the people to down McClanahan and vote for Kuhio if they did not want to vote for him.

"What do you really consider your chances are on the other islands?" Notley was asked.

"You tell me first how it is on Oahu," answered Notley.

"Oh, here you have not a ghost of a show?"

"Oh, yes I am very strong on Oahu," contradicted Notley.

"How do you think you stand as compared with last year?"

"Well, you see, these things fluctuate."

"But in which direction are they fluctuating?"

"In my favor, sure," said the Home Rule chief.

Mrs. W. L. Rose was a passenger who arrived on the Kinau today.

RALLY TONIGHT AT PEARL CITY

Kuhio and McClanahan To Open Their Home Campaign

Tonight the first general excursion of the present campaign will take place when the Republicans will invade Pearl City with their swarming multitudes. A special train will take the speakers and their following, leaving the depot at 2 o'clock sharp. The speaking is expected to begin at 7:30 o'clock and will last till after 11 p. m., when the special train will bring the crowd back to Honolulu.

The principal feature of the meeting will be a speech by Delegate Kalaniano'ole, who returned from Hawaii this morning, and his two principal captains, Stephen Desha and John C. Lane. The other speakers will be C. F. Chillingworth, L. L. McCandless, W. O. Smith, S. P. Correa, Joseph Kalana, A. S. Kaleopu, H. N. Kanihoni, H. W. Lelewi, John L. Pao, A. M. Brown, J. W. Cathcart, F. T. P. Waterhouse, D. Kalanokalani Jr., Jas. Bicknell and W. W. Harris. Judge Hookano will preside, while music will be furnished by the Iolani Glee Club and Mrs. Alex. Bishaw.

The Republicans will also hold a meeting at the vacant lot near the Club Stables on Fort street, at which Jack Lucas will be the presiding genius. The speakers will be: Wm. Aylett, Geo. A. Davis, J. H. S. Kaleo, C. B. Malle, Henry C. Vida, E. W. Quinn, A. V. Gear, W. T. Rawlins, A. D. Castro, E. A. C. Long, John A. Hughes, Chas. Hustace Jr., S. C. Dwight.

The Democrats will have a general rally at Ala Park tonight, at which their candidate for Delegate to Congress, E. B. McClanahan, will be the main attraction.

The Democrats were badly disappointed today by the non-arrival in the Kinau of Makekahu of Hamakua and Kanio of Kohala, both former legislators and famous spellbinders, the arrival of whom had been generally advertised by the Democrats.

On Monday night the Republicans will hold a big meeting at Ala Park, at which Prince Kuhio will, for the first time in this campaign, address the people of Honolulu. On the same evening the Fourth District candidates will hold a meeting at Moiliili, and those of the Fifth one at Moanalua.

BECKLEY PAPER A "JOB"

session with the candidates to see how many had the price to file nomination papers as many dropped out because they were short of funds.

The general belief is that the job was put up by the Civic gang and a native Hawaiian was induced to take the money and the nomination to the Capitol. One man said he thought Carter was responsible for it as he liked Beckley.

All the Republican candidates had filed their papers before noon yesterday and about half past three o'clock a representative of the Democratic party brought up all the papers which had not been filed for the candidates put up by his party. The Home Rule nominations struggled in one at a time all through the afternoon.

Joe Correa, who doesn't like to go to school and plays hooky instead, will have 16 be good for the next eight weeks if he doesn't want to go to the reform school. Judge Whitney released him this morning on probation for that length of time.
